Baby Celebrations

There's nothing quite as special as the birth of a baby. Here at the Stormont Hotel we have put together a host of ideas on how to celebrate your new baby and will help you to plan that extra-special welcome!

Gender Reveal

Delight your closest friends and family with a gender reveal party. We can enhance the element of surprise with colour co-ordinated cupcakes or cocktails to be presented at the right moment.

Baby Shower

This American trend has become a hit in the UK and is usually organised for the mum-to-be by a close friend or family member. Baby showers are usually held in advance of the baby's arrival, during the final trimester, to celebrate their imminent arrival.

Baby Arrival, Christening or Formal Naming Ceremony

Whether you prefer a naming ceremony or a religious ceremony this is another great way to celebrate your baby's arrival. As an alternative to a baby shower, this celebration is held a few weeks after the arrival.

For all of these events we would encourage the organiser to theme and personalise the event with baby celebration favours, balloons and bunting, flowers and photographer. So there you have it! Hopefully these suggestions on how to celebrate your new arrival will give you a few ideas and here at the Stormont Hotel we would love to turn these ideas into reality.
